PRINCIPAL

December 19th 1923.

Dear Robinson:

Last week I wrote you somewhat at length about our work; but I want to take time for just a note to thank you for the Jowett volumes you sent me in the Xmas package, which arrived a couple days ago. Needless to say, for you are in the "know"; a minister appreciates our gift like a good book, and, of course Jowett is a wise. Those sermonettes are especially appealing: I think my wife and I shall take the volumes in turn at our family devotional hour for the next few months. They are quite well adapted to the purpose.

I know it is a little late to wish you and your wife a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year, but we do all the same, assuring you of our interest and prayers in your great work for our Lord.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

Fulwick Bowman

Dear Stew:-

Just want to drop you a line to inquire if you have any suggestion to make at this time about Marcia and Gerald. I took a run down to Cranford the other day and saw them both. Marcia seems to be getting along very well, although she has not been able to take up any work on account of the boy. Do you think there is anything we can do. Personally, I expect to send the little fellow a tin horn or something, and would welcome any suggestion if you think something more substantial is required. I do not feel we should draw on the fund at this time, although we now have $709. in the bank.

With best wishes for a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. I am

Sincerely,
Ryp Demby.
